

DEFINITIVE MAP REVIEW OF PUBLIC RIGHTS OF WAY BARNSTAPLE

The Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981 requires the County Council to keep the Definitive Map of public rights of way under continuous review and to make modifications where it appears that routes should be added, regraded, amended or deleted. A review is currently being undertaken in Barnstaple.

Route 1: Application for addition of Byway Open to All Traffic

Unrecorded route from Pottington Road to the Tarka Trail and slipway on the River Taw estuary

Grid ref: SS 5526 3348 – 5504 3334

Maps showing existing recorded public rights of way, with suggested changes to the Definitive Map for additions, a diversion and extinguishments in respect of 13 routes, are available for inspection (Mon–Fri, 9.30–12.30/1.30–4.30) at Barnstaple Town Council Offices, Barum House, The Square, Barnstaple and during office hours (Mon–Fri, 9.00 a.m. to 4.30 p.m.) at:

- Area North Highway Management office, Room 512, Fifth Floor, Civic Centre, Barnstaple; and
- the Public Rights of Way Section, Devon County Council, Environment Economy & Culture Directorate, Lucombe House, County Hall, Topsham Road, Exeter;

and on Devon County Council's internet website at: www.devon.gov.uk/prow (on the Definitive Map Review pages)

Anyone who has further evidence for or against any suggestions made, or any additional suggestions to make concerning additions or alterations to the Definitive Map for Barnstaple, please contact:
