Knotweed

Help us to find out where it is in Devon

Use this form to record useful information about your Knotweed sighting and either post to DBRC, include the information in an e-mail to dbrc@devonwildlifetrust.org or complete a survey form via the DBRC pages of the Devon Wildlife Trust website
http://www.devonwildlifetrust.org/index.php?section=services:biodiversitycentre:surveys

Your name:

And address:

Email:

Which Knotweed have you seen:

- ☐ Japanese Knotweed
- ☐ Giant Knotweed
- ☐ Himalayan Knotweed
- ☐ Hybrid Knotweed
- ☐ Unsure

Date you saw it (a year or range of years is fine):

We are interested in your historic records as well.

Place you saw it (notes and / or sketch map):

☐ I have taken a photograph(s)

Always ensure you have the permission of the landowner before you go onto private land.

Grid reference (if known):
e.g. SX 9980 6780

Habitat:

- ☐ Beside running water
- ☐ In a public recreation area
- ☐ Road verge
- ☐ Agricultural land
- ☐ Hedgebank
- ☐ Woodland
- ☐ Other – please describe:

Abundance:

- ☐ A few individual plants (1-10)
- ☐ More than a few individual plants (10 to 50)
- ☐ Many individual plants (50 to 100)
- ☐ Too many plants to count
- ☐ One discrete stand of plants
- ☐ More than one stand

Notes:

Name and address of landowner if known:

Thank you for taking part. Your record will be compiled in a database at the Devon Biodiversity Records Centre. Your name and address will be included on this database and you may be invited to take part in other wildlife surveys. Your details will not be passed on to anyone else. Please indicate if you would like us NOT to include your details on the database. ☐

Return your record to:
Devon Biodiversity Records Centre
C/o Exeter Central Library
Castle Street
Exeter
EX4 3PQ

See:
www.devon.gov.uk/knotweed
for up to date information on Knotweed in Devon

Telephone the Records Centre on 01392 274128 for more recording forms.

Nov 2007