National Youth Jazz Summer School 2007

Come and audition for the National Youth Jazz Summer School 2007

Thanks to an initiative and funding by Youth Music, Jazz Services is delighted to launch its pilot National Youth Jazz Summer School. This week-long summer school intends to draw together a pool of 30 gifted and talented instrumentalists, singers, composers and arrangers aged between 14 and 18, in collaboration with 10 internationally renowned jazz musicians, who are also experienced jazz educators. The focus of the summer school will be on developing the improvisatory and interactive skills within the context of small group playing, while offering a high level of performance experience and professional guidance.

The week-long summer school will be held at

Leeds College of Music from 29th July to 5th August 2007 with a free public performance from 6pm – 8pm at

The Venue, Leeds College of Music, on 4th August 2007

Free regional auditions will be held between 31st March and 21st April 2007 (From 10:00 am to 5:00 pm).

Auditions are open to all young people aged between 14 and 18 and living in England
