

How the Soldier Repairs the Gramophone by Sasa Stanistic

How the Soldier Repairs the Gramophone is the story of a young boy, Aleksandar Krsmanovic, growing up in war torn Bosnia. Aleksandar inherits his grandfather's ability to live and indeed survive through stories. Vibrant with the magic of childhood, the horror of war, and the power of language, the pages of this sparkling novel are filled with the love of storytelling.