

Devon Design & Print

Devon Design & Print (DD&P) is the corporate design & print provider to Devon County Council and offers a complete range of graphic design, reprographics and printing/finishing related services to the Authority and to schools. The creative design function of Devon Learning Resources (DLR Design) has now been successfully integrated within Devon Design & Print and continues to offer schools excellent service and value for money. We produce a variety of products from school prospectuses and logos to stationery, forms and many other documents required in schools. We offer free advice and free estimates and will manage your project from start to finish. For complex projects, we may send a member of our experienced customer service team to your school to discuss requirements with you in person. Wherever possible we use recycled paper and environmentally friendly products.

Services provided by DD&P include:

- Creative graphic design, artwork and typesetting: A dedicated schools team with the experience and knowledge of the special requirements of schools
- Illustrative design work
- Exhibition & large format displays: From mounted and laminated display panels to the latest pop-up banners
- CD and DVD duplicating & printing: Unbeatable value in mass duplication and full colour printing of CDs and DVDs from as little as 69p per CD and 80p per DVD
- High resolution full colour scanning
- Digital video shooting & editing: For your school play or any other project.
- Colour and monochrome photocopying
- Full colour lithographic and digital printing
- Print and document finishing and distribution
- High volume variable data printing. Our variable data printing systems allow you to individualise your documents to add that personal touch
- Signage
