

Devon Learning Resources

part of the School Library & Learning Resources group

Subscription service

DLR offers great value for money with its subscription services for schools.

- Museum Education Officer delivers an outreach service to bring history alive in your school, offering tailor-made teaching sessions in the main topics for KS1 and 2, making extensive use of artefacts.
- Artefact Collection: dynamic and targeted resources for topic work including historic, religious and cultural artefacts.
- Art Collection: unique and valuable resource for cross-curricular and art-based projects, consisting of original and reproduction works of art and crafts, including paintings, ceramics, prints, photographs.
- Media: wide variety of topic-related DVDs, VHS and CDs for use with whiteboards.

Pay as you use services

Available to schools with or without a full subscription

Travelling Displays

Roman Soldier
King Henry VIII & Wives
Tudor House
Victorian Schoolroom
World War II
Chembakolli – an Indian village
Kenya
The Gambia
The Jurassic Coast
Art of the Mask-maker
Shape & Space

Off-Air Recording

Pre-recorded videos of TV broadcast educational programmes, supplied as a complete series with a library case and at a competitive fixed cost.

Prices & Contacts 2008/9

Subscription charge

Primary & Special schools	£600 Lump sum + £1.60 per pupil
Secondary schools	£1000 Lump sum + £1.00 per pupil

Pay as you use

Travelling Displays	Variously priced from £30 - £150
Off-Air Recording	Competitively priced from £10 - £30

Further Information

Contact: Kevin Harradine, DLR Team Leader
Address: Great Moor House, Bittern Road
Sowton, Exeter EX2 7NL
Tel: 01392 385230
Fax: 01392 385236
Email: DLRes@devon.gov.uk
Website: www.devon.gov.uk/dlr

This service has been subject to competition through the Alternative Portfolio and has met the minimum quality standards required. For this particular service, there were no external providers who met this standard.