

The Book of Dave by Will Self

Dave Rudman, is a disillusioned London taxi driver, who records his anguish and woe by writing down the thoughts on the experience of his day to day existence. Dave eventually buries these missives. 500 years later they are discovered and treated with awe eventually becoming the sacred text for a religion that has taken hold in the devastated remains of a flooded London. The Book of Dave is a meditation upon the nature of religion; a love story; a searing satire of contemporary urban life and a page turning detective story set in the far future.
